"How To Begin Your Genealogy Research-Part III"

Wondering how to fill in the gaps on your family tree? Want to learn how to research newspapers for your genealogical research? Do you know about Yizkor books, which tell the stories of the shtetls your ancestors lived in?

JGSCV Board members, Jan Meisels Allen and Werner Frank, both accomplished genealogists, will lead the discussions including: family hearsay, cemetery books, Jewish history books Jewish marriage records, searching older newspapers for obituaries, articles on family businesses and Yizkor books (written by survivors after the Holocaust as memorials to those destroyed Jewish communities, containing descriptions and histories of the shtetl, biographies of prominent people, and lists of people who perished, etc.).

Meeting co-sponsored with Temple Adat Elohim

There is no charge to attend the meeting.

Anyone may join JGSCV.
