The Program: From the Spanish Inquisition to the Present: A Search for Jewish Roots

Whether or not you have known-Sephardic roots, you will find this program of interest—both for the genealogical techniques Genie Milgrom will discuss as well as her genealogical journey through time as she criss-crossed the planet for her Converso or Marrano roots. Milgrom was able to document fully an unbroken maternal lineage of 15 grandmothers going back to the late 1400's. She will tell us her personal story and explain in detail the methods she used to open up the Jewish history of the small village in Spain where her ancestors resided for over 500 years. Today she is still very active and preserving her findings in the village of Feroselle, Spain which sits on the boarder between Spain and Portugal.

Speaker: Genie Milgrom is an International Business woman and is currently the President of the Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Miami. She is also the author of the book, My 15 Grandmothers and is President of Tarbut Sefarad-Feroselle in Spain as well as an active member of the American Society of Personal Historians. You can see more information on her website at www.geniemilgrom.com. Book signing and purchasing opportunity.
